Fourth quarter surge leads North Side past Lexington

Tribe thrills fans with 18-17 win over the Tigers, improve to 1-0 in region

The North Side Indians are 1-0 in region play after a thrilling 18-17 road win over the Lexington Tigers. North Side trailed 17-6 in the fourth quarter. Sophomore receiver Javonte Smith powered North Side's comeback with a pair of touchdown runs - including a 40 yard run on 4th & 11 that gave the Tribe the lead with 5 mins remaining. The defense held off the Tigers and allowed North Side to end the game in the victory formation. Exciting stuff! Congratulations, Coach Lowe and team! North Side will host Hardin County on Friday. Keep on #WINNING #JMCSS
