Chief Officers revisit strategic plan

District leaders meet ahead of Board presentations Saturday

Chief Officers representing more than 12 district departments collaborated recently in preparation for strategic planning meetings with Superintendent Dr. Marlon King, Executive team members and the JMCSS School Board. Crafting three-year plans that align with district goals and beliefs is a critical step in meeting the diverse range of needs for our students, employees and schools. Annual review of department projects is a critical step in adhering to calculated spending habits required by Superintendent King and the Board.
