South Side Lady Hawks advance to state four years in a row

Will face Northview Academy on Thursday at MTSU - Murphy Center

The South Side High School Lady Hawks secured their spot in the TSSAA Class 3A state tournament after a 73-37 victory over Station Camp in the sectional round. This win propels the Lady Hawks to their ninth state tournament appearance and fourth consecutive trip, highlighting their sustained excellence. The team, boasting an impressive 28-2 overall record and an unblemished 10-0 district record, is led by seniors Jaidynn Askins, Reanna Kemp, and Akira Lacy. Their leadership has been instrumental in the team's success this season. South Side will face Northview Academy at 2:15 p.m. on Thursday at the Murphy Center in Murfreesboro. The Lady Hawks aim to clinch their second TSSAA Gold Ball, following their championship win in 2023!

We need you! Both JCM and South Side are hosting substate games tonight in boys basketball. This is an awesome opportunity for the district. Let's show up and support our teams this week in Jackson and Murfreesboro! #Winning #MarchMadness
